

GOOD MEDICINE.—Long-continued and systematic puffing will succeed in bringing any worthless nostrum before the public—but, lacking merit, it cannot long retain the position for a while assumed. We desire merely to make STAMBER'S ASSORTED REMEDY known to the public, feeling confident that so good a medicine, which has been endorsed by some of the brightest ornaments of the medical faculty, will realize its own popularity, and one which will be as lasting as the good effects its use is constantly producing. This excellent medicine is very efficient in coughs, colds, bronchitis, and other diseases of the lungs and throat. It has been productive of beneficial results in a great number of cases, in different parts of the country; and physicians of the highest standing are in the habit of using that and STAMBER'S DIARRHOEA CORDIAL in their practice. See descriptive pamphlets, to be had gratis of the agents. Price of each, only 50 cents per bottle, or six bottles for $2.50.

E. S. STAMBER & Co., proprietors, wholesale Druggists, Baltimore. Sold by J. & P. A. SANNIS, Gallipolis; John D. Park, Cincinnati; J. H. Patterson & Co., Wheeling; R. E. Sellers, Pittsburgh, wholesale.

CONSUMPTION AND SPITTING BLOOD.—See the certificate of Mr. Turner H. Ramsey, for many years proprietor of the Farmers' Hotel, Frederickburg, Va., and late of the City Hotel, Richmond, Va.

Dr. John Minge, of the city of Richmond, though a regular physician, and of course opposed to what he called quack medicines, was obliged to say that its good effects in the case of Mr. Ramsey, were wonderful indeed.

He had been given up by several physicians; had tried most of the quack medicines; and was on the verge of despair, as well as the grave, when he tried Carter's Spanish Mixture.

We refer the public to his full and lengthy certificate around the bottle, stating his case.

DALLEY'S GENUINE PAIN EXTRACTOR.—Its friends are the Million—and intelligent. Its enemies, the ignorant—the bigoted—the selfish—and the criminal counterfeiter!

The honest and unsuspecting are imposed on by the latter, who maliciously endanger the lives of the suffering, for the mere sake of paltry gain. I leave it to a discerning and impartial public to decide, what punishment the wretch deserves, who could inflict pain and suffering, and hazard the life of a fellow creature, for the mere sake of benefiting his own pocket.

DALLEY'S GENUINE EXTRACTOR will subdue the pain and inflammation from the severest burns or scalds, in from one to twenty minutes—and that it will heal the wounds without scars, and effectually cure Fever Sores.—Fits

Salt Rheum—Inflammatory Rheumatism—Sore and Inflamed Eyes—Cuts—Wounds—Bruises—Cold and Invertebral Spinal Head—Corns and Bunions—Erysipelas—Sprains—Swelling of Joints—Chilblains—Bites of Insects—Stomach and Broken Breast—Sore Nipples—Eruptions—and all other inflammatory and cutaneous diseases, where the parts affected can be reached.

Don't be incredulous about the many diseases named, to be cured by one thing—but reflect, that the few, but positive properties which the Dalley Salve alone contains, and as heretofore enumerated—one to four—can reach not alone the above mentioned diseases, but many more not enumerated.

SHAKE NO MORE. RING'S REMEDY

For Fever and Ague, Bilious Remittent and Intermittent Fevers, and all their kindred diseases.

There was a time when Fever and Ague and Bilious Remittent Fevers were considered endemic—the special scourges of particular regions and localities. They seem of late years to have escaped beyond their old boundaries. They prostrate the population of old settlements as well as new; they reach the hill-top as well as sweep the marsh and the forest; they prevail in northern cities as well as on the deltas of southern rivers, and in the swamps of the South-west. Medical skill seems to pit itself against them in vain.—They triumph over all its stereotyped drugs; they fasten themselves upon whole districts; they appear to become ever hereditary.

But at length Science, Research, and Experiment have perfected the means of repression, checking and exterminating these dire diseases. A preparation which has been tested during six years of private practice, and modified from time to time during that period, until susceptible of no further improvement, is now ushered before the public under the name of RING'S REMEDY, as a positive and invariable cure for Fever and Ague, Bilious Remittent Fevers, and all maladies which come properly under the head of remittent and intermittent. The proprietor of this great medicine wishes it to be understood that he introduces it as an EXHAUSTIVE SPECIFIC, and guarantees its uniform success. This is a bold assumption, but it is founded on the observation of years, and the equally unqualified declarations of every patient—and the aggregate amounts to some thousands—who have resorted to it. The sufferer who may try the "Remedy" will not have to wait long for a confirmation of these statements. The mirror will reflect day by day a less sallow and ghastly face, as the remedy of the medicine is diminished; strength, appetite, spirits will return; the duration of the chills and subsequent heats will decrease at each recurrence, until these symptoms cease; and before a month, and in some cases before a week is over, the convalescent will be in a condition to resume the duties of active life. "There is no such word as fail" with RING'S REMEDY. The effect is as invariable as it is salutary.

What household, what traveler, then, when he is exposed to a class of diseases so universally prevalent as Intermittent and Remittent Fevers. To the western pioneer and the citizen of the remote frontier, and even if taken occasionally during the warm season it will be found an admirable preventive of all endemic and epidemic diseases produced by an impure atmosphere.

For sale by BAILEY & MAGUET, Gallipolis, Ohio.

A FACT—FACTS ARE STUBBORN THINGS.—The Philadelphia Saturday Gazette, one of the very best family newspapers published in the United States, says, and we do not hesitate to endorse every letter from a source so respectable:

"It is seldom that we recommend what are termed patent medicines, to the confidence and patronage of our readers; and therefore, when we recommend Dr. Hoffman's German Bitters, prepared only by Dr. C. M. Jackson, we wish it to be distinctly understood that we are not speaking of the nostrum of the day, that is, a medicine about for a brief period and then forgotten after it has done its guilty race of mischief, but of a medicine long established, universally prized, and which has met the hearty approval of the faculty itself."

THE PERU (Ill.) Chronicle of the 7th ult., learns from a farmer who lives on the south side of the Illinois river, on the bluff, some particulars of the storm of the 20th ult. His cattle, though they were enclosed within a circle of straw stacks and hay stacks, were so much effected with the driving snow blast, that they refused to eat. The snow was driven between the hairs, and coming in contact with the skin, was for a moment melted, then frozen, until the whole covering of the animal seemed one unbroken armor of ice, which did not disappear, on many, for four days after. The snow melting on their foreheads and running down, formed huge icicles that passed down the face and reached far below the nose, giving them the appearance of the beasts with the ten horns—in many instances the broad sheet of ice, falling over their eyes, blindfolded them effectually. Their nostrils were filled with frozen snow that had been driven into them by the violence of the wind. The quails that had gathered about his barnyard as a last refuge, were frozen to death. Prairie chickens were either frozen to death or so benumbed that he could take them with his hands as they sat on the fence, sleeping with actual stupor. His barnyard chickens were many of them frozen, and what is singular, in nearly every case they were found with their bills as wide apart as they could be sundered, and the mouth filled with solid ice. He has driven his cattle and teams over his fences, the snow being on a level with them, and so compact as to sustain a heavy load.

THE UPHEAVING IN EUROPE.—Should the European war be protracted through another season, we shall see stirring times. Victor Hugo, the most eloquent of French orators, says with his peculiar beauty:

"Poland is in her sepulcher, but she has her clarion in her hand; Hungary is in her shroud, but she clenches her sabre; Italy is in her tomb, but she has a fire at her heart; France is in her grave, but she has a star on her forehead; and all signs announce to us in the next spring the hour of insurrection as the morning is the hour for awaking."

DIED.—On the 2d ult., after a short illness, Mr. JOHN A. FISHER, of Huntington township, aged 59 years.
